

Dr. Marshall Dickholtz

2565 Shermer Road
Northbrook, IL 60062
mdickholtz@comcast.net
847-226-2858 (Cell)

EDUCATION

Associate of Arts Degree, 1973-1975 – Lincoln College, Lincoln, IL
Doctor of Chiropractic Degree, December 1978 – Palmer College of Chiropractic, Davenport, IA
Attended approximately 150 post graduate educational classes, 1979-Present
Board Certified, National Upper Cervical Chiropractic Association, May 1993
Physical Therapeutics – National University of Health Sciences, 1998

GRADUATION AWARDS

Certificate of Internship- “Demonstrating superior clinical proficiency while serving in the capacity of Intern in the Palmer College of Chiropractic”, December 9, 1978

Certificate of Merit- “Has contributed unselfish leadership in promoting the Philosophy, Science, and Art of Chiropractic”, December 9, 1978

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Created and taught student oriented NUCCA classes on technique of National Upper Cervical Chiropractic at Palmer College, 1978

Attended approximately 240 post-graduate courses including: chiropractic technique, nutrition, therapeutics, practice management, leadership, communication, integrity, and personal development, 1978-present

Licensed in Illinois and Louisiana to practice Chiropractic, 1979

Practiced with Dr. Marshall Dickholtz, Sr., 1979-1984, Chicago, IL

Established Dickholtz Chiropractic Center, 1984-1999, Morton Grove, IL

Credentialed instructor NUCCA technique, instructing Advanced Technique classes, 1994 – Present

- Spinal examination correlate to neurological function
- Xray practices for increased clarity and reduced exposure
- Xray structural identification
- Reducing errors in imaging quality and analysis

- Patient positioning in radiographic imaging
- Biomechanics of cervical misalignments
- Spinal adjusting
- Standards in patient care
- Advanced adjusting procedures
- Integrity in practice protocols
- Research updates
- NUCCA board certification mentoring
- NUCCA board certification protocols

Established NUCCA Board Certification as foundation of NUCCA's education curriculum, 1995

Colorado State Chiropractic Licensure, August 12, 1999

Established HealthSmart, January 2000-Present, Northbrook, IL

- A center for patient care and training Doctors of Chiropractic
- Only office in the USA with three NUCCA Board Certified Practitioners
- Trained over 14 preceptors and associate doctors of chiropractic

Personally, cared for approximately 12,000 patients and 295,000 patient visits.

Has worked for the past 25 years in a 100% referral-based practice, with referrals from patients, MD's, PT's, massage therapists, DDS' and orthodontists.

Treated patients from over a dozen different countries traveling for care as far as Japan, India and Middle East.

An ambassador for the Chiropractic Profession

Developed Atlas Pillow Company, ergonomically correct pillow for back and side sleepers, 2015

RESEARCH

- Lead Researcher for X-ray Reliability Study, 2013

PUBLICATIONS

1. Co Author, NUCCA Protocols and Perspectives First Edition, NUCCA Board Certification, (2002), Chapter 20.

2. Co Author, Journal of Practical Pain Management Volume 16, Issue 1 January/February (2016), Undiagnosed Atlas Subluxation in Patient with Pain and Poor Myofascial Function, 58-62.
3. Co Author, currently pending research article for Leading Chiropractic Journal, (2020).

APPEARANCES

Chicago WTTW, 1985, Focus on Health, Chiropractic and Health.

ABC's Good Morning America, 2008, High Blood Pressure Reduced by Atlas Correction, article published in Journal of Human Hypertension.

Discovery Health Channel Special, 2012, Featuring Treatment of NHRA Driver Tony Schumacher.

HONORS / AWARDS

National Upper Cervical Chiropractic Association Service Award, April 2010

National Upper Cervical Chiropractic Association's Highest Honor, R.R. Gregory, D.C. Award, May 20, 2006

MEMBERSHIPS / AFFILIATIONS

National Upper Cervical Chiropractic Association

- Co-Chair of standards committee and Co-Chair of certification, 1995-Present
- Board Member 2002-Present

National Upper Cervical Research Foundation

- Board Member 2002-Present
- Vice President 2008-2013